

Pregnancy & Exercise - Contemporary Training Guidelines

This comprehensive online workshop covers the essentials of training pregnant clients. It includes up to date information relevant to pre and post natal clients and clarifies many of the misconceptions associated with exercise. The information is current, research based and supported by key organisations including the Royal College of Obstetricians and Gynaecologists.

Workshop Overview:

- Review of the physiological changes associated with pregnancy.
- Description of healthy weight gain.
- Clarification and identification of associated conditions that impact on exercise participation.
- Pre and post natal exercise guidelines including a comparison of contemporary and previous recommendations.
- Practical exercise and participation guidelines.
- Self-paced online course over 3 months.

Pre-requisite:

Participants must have completed the Certificate III in Fitness and be registered as a Gym Instructor to be eligible to attain Fitness Australia CECs from this course.

Upon completion of this course, Fitness Australia Registrants may be eligible to have the Pre & Post Natal and women delivery knowledge and skill areas recognised on their registration profile.
